

COLLEGE UNBOUND PLAN FOR GRADUATION

Students must complete a minimum of 120 credits and meet CU requirements in order to receive a bachelor's degree.

General Education Skills and Application Outcomes (The Big 10 Leadership & Change Competencies) (10 Credits)

These competencies are addressed in Workplace & World Lab, required each semester through graduation to integrate courses, projects, and life.

Advocacy for Self and Others
Accountability

Collaboration
Communication

Creativity
Critical Thinking

Intercultural Engagement
Problem Solving

Reflection
Resiliency

General Education Learning Outcomes - Content and Process Outcomes Demonstrate competence at Practitioner level prior to graduation.

These outcomes are addressed in General Education courses which meet the distribution requirements listed below.

Digital Fluency
Empirical Reasoning

Ethical Reasoning
Historical Reasoning

Human Expression
Participatory Action Research - Self

Quantitative Reasoning
Social Reasoning

General Education Distribution Requirements (46 Liberal Arts Credits)

Civics	Arts & Humanities	Science and Math	Social and Behavioral Sciences	Integrated & Applied Learning
3 credits in Power and Difference 6 credits in Global Citizenship	6 credits in Advanced Composition 3 credits in Literature and Fine Arts 3 credits in History	3 credits in Natural Science 4 credits Experiential Science 3 credits in Math	3 credits in Individual & Group Dynamics 6 credits in Research Methods	3 credits Workplace & World Lab A 3 credits Workplace & World Lab Z

Organizational Leadership and Change Major (36 Liberal Arts credits)

There are two 9-week terms in the semester. Students enroll in two 3-credit courses and enroll in Workplace & World Lab in which they develop and maintain a Personal Learning Plan, design and manage an ongoing action research project, interact with a Personal Learning Network, and integrate theories and ideas from their two courses.

These outcomes are addressed in courses required for the OLC major.

Organizational Theory
Mentorship
Contextualizing Work

Labor and Democracy
Writing for Careers
Adaptive Leadership

Reframing Failure
PA Research - Career
PA Research - Community

Community Development Theory
Place Based Reasoning
Public Narrative

Media & Message
Globalization

Free* Electives (28 credits)

76 credits are prescribed Liberal Arts credits within General Education Requirements (40 credits) and the OLC Major (36 credits). Students work with academic advisors to choose courses appropriate to their interests for the remaining 38 credits to reach 120. *At least 10 of these 38 credits must be Liberal Arts credits.

TERM 1 FIRST SEMESTER TERM 2

Intro to Org
Ldrshp & Chge
3 credits

Wrtg for Chge:
Adv Comp
3 credits

Contextualizing
Work
3 credits

Reframing
Failure
3 credits

Workplace &
World Lab
3 credits

TIME TO COMPLETION

After the first semester, student schedules vary as they choose classes according to their Personal Learning Plans and Degree Plans.

Workplace &
World Lab
3 credits

FINAL TERM

CAPSTONE
Looking Back/Looking Forward
3 credits

PROJECT AND PERSONAL LEARNING PLAN